Patrol Men Doing Good Work.
Little is heard of the hundreds of men on patrol duty in the United States navy. Silently, with unflinching vigilance, they watch the coasts with a telling effect so good in its results that they form a unit in the force of eyes that never close. Now and then word comes from them. They are in an attack, make some dash and win commendation, or idling come of a casualty in the line and heavy fight with the ocean. One of the latter refers to John R. Alexander, a seaman, second class, of the United States naval reserve, who, in this splendid war, gave up his life. He is reported lost overboard from a submarine patrol on April 18. Alexander enlisted April 27, 1917, at Pittsburgh. His father, John R. Alexander, lives at 2015 Broad avenue, Altoona, Pa.
Proper Disposal of Flags.
Old and worn flags should be destroyed as a whole, gradually, preferably by burning. Do not cast them aside or use them in any way that might be thought disrespectful to the flag. The adjacent removal of the United States flag.

Patrol Men Doing Good Work.
Little is heard of the hundreds of men on patrol duty in the United States navy. Silently, with unflinching vigilance, they watch the coasts with a telling effect so good in its results that they form a unit in the force of eyes that never close. Now and then word comes from them. They are in an attack, make some dash and win commendation, or idling come of a casualty in the line and heavy fight with the ocean. One of the latter refers to John R. Alexander, a seaman, second class, of the United States naval reserve, who, in this splendid war, gave up his life. He is reported lost overboard from a submarine patrol on April 18. Alexander enlisted April 27, 1917, at Pittsburgh. His father, John R. Alexander, lives at 2015 Broad avenue, Altoona, Pa.
Proper Disposal of Flags.
Old and worn flags should be destroyed as a whole, gradually, preferably by burning. Do not cast them aside or use them in any way that might be thought disrespectful to the flag. The adjacent removal of the United States flag.

The KITCHEN CABINET

In this world it is not what we take up but what we give up that makes us rich.—H. W. Beecher.

HELPFUL REMINDERS.

Save any bits of left-over paraffin from jelly glasses, wash well, melt and strain and it will be ready for use another year.

Paraffin is fine to keep the irons smooth while ironing; it also keeps the kitchen range bright and good-looking, and should be used freely if a range stands unused any length of time.

When pouring anything very hot into a glass dish set the dish on a wet cloth. Kerosene is a great saver of scouring soap and labor. Use a cloth dampened with kerosene to wipe out the boiler after using. It will keep the sink free from grease with little rubbing.

It is seasonable just now to bear in mind that fruit picked after a heavy rain loses its flavor and is not good for making jelly.

Fruit for jelly making should not be too ripe, as the pectin is found in larger amount in unripe fruit; this is the thickening quality which gives to jelly its consistency.

Gurrants and raspberries in equal quantities make a delicious jelly. Jelly to be clear should drip through a jelly bag and never be squeezed.

The uncooked stems of mushrooms shredded and mixed with blanched and shredded almonds served on lettuce with French dressing, makes a most dainty salad. Little bits of left-over salmon mixed with coconut, fresh, or, if dried, the sugar washed out of it, with a chopped pickle or two, makes another not common salad.

Lettuce that has become too old for fresh use may be cooked and served as greens, making another vegetable dish and a palatable one, too.

Any of the cooked lettuce left over may be served with hard-cooked eggs as a salad with a spoonful of boiled dressing.

Any green vegetable is of better color to serve if the kettle is left uncovered while cooking.

Save the meat and gather mushrooms now up to frost time. The large variety of edible ones will offer a change of flavor, yet if one is fond of them, they can be served in some way for each day. Do not risk picking mushrooms unless you are sure of the variety.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

2414—A Popular Model

A garment of this kind is both serviceable and practical. The front closing is not its only feature. The smart belt, with pockets combined, will be found of much use. The sleeve may be finished in wrist or elbow length. This style should recommend itself to "service" uniform. It is suitable for khaki, galatea, gingham, linen, drill or percale. The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, and 46 inches bust measure. Size 38 requires 6 1/2 yards of 36-inch material. The dress measures about 2 1/2 yards at the lower edge.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date fall and winter 1918-1919 catalogue, containing 550 designs of ladies' misses' and children's patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle (illustrating 20 of the various, simple stitches) and a valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

High-Water Mark.

"High-water mark" is the line ordinarily reached by the sea at high tide. The general high-water mark of the sea is taken as the line at the limit of the rise of the medium tides and that of a body of fresh water in which there is no ebb and flow tide is taken at the limit of the soil that is not affected by the water as to be marked with a nature and vegetation distinct from that of the banks.

A War-Time Request:

Please Consult the Telephone Directory Before Calling "Information"

HEREAFTER our "Information" operators, when answering calls for numbers appearing in the directory, will request the calling parties to look in the Telephone Book for the numbers. We are obliged to make this request in order that we may satisfactorily meet the difficulties due to war conditions, and conserve our resources for use in essential war work.

"Information" is called thousands of times daily for numbers that can be found in the Telephone Directory. Such calls greatly reduce operating efficiency at the "Information Bureaus."

Much additional equipment and many more operators are thus required than would be needed if the directories were used as much as they should be.

Will you kindly cooperate with us in this necessary war economy?

Always look in the Telephone Book before you ask "Information" for a number.

WAR CHEST DRIVE
NOVEMBER 11

The War Chest is here. It was finally determined at a meeting held at the court house Saturday to consolidate all giving drives of the year into one big drive. It will take the place of the united war drive during the week of November 11th next.

This will result in eliminating the various drives which come every month or so. It was estimated that these would be, at least eight local county drives during the year besides the Red Cross drive and the United War Work drive. The War Chest will consolidate all of these drives. Every person in the county who has an income or a salary or wages will be asked to pledge their limit for the year. The amount pledged can be paid in one payment, or four or twelve or fifty-two payments.

The War Chest plan has been considered since last April when Mayor Canfield called a meeting of representatives of various agencies interested. It has been carefully investigated elsewhere. It has been adopted in a majority of the cities of the state and in nearly one-half of the counties.

Those on the committee which determined it are Judge Hasbrouck, Mayor Canfield, Edward Coykendall, John D. Schoonmaker, John E. Mahan, Frank R. Powley, Joseph M. Herbert, Sam Bernstein, Harry P. Dodge, Ralph R. Whitehead of Woodstock, William O. Schwarzwaelder of Chichester, Dwight Divine of Ellenville, Hon. Frank J. LeFevre of New Paltz, Harcourt Pratt of Highland, and others.

A corporation will be formed to be known as the "Ulster County War Chest Association Inc." The first meeting will be held at the court house at five o'clock on Wednesday night.

Of course, the War Chest will not include investment drives such as the Liberty Loans and War Savings Stamps, nor the Red Cross membership, but it is intended to include all other drives. Therefore, the workers can give themselves intensively, and the contributors can give their limit and then a little more, because with one drive everyone will have one chance to show their colors.

BRIEF REVIEW OF SUNDAY WAR NEWS

The battle has continued over the greater part of the western front from the Holland frontier to the Meuse river with the Allies achieving new gains.

On the Flanders front the British were reported to be only a mile from the German base at Tournai.

(Tournai is in Belgium, 12 miles east of Lille.)

The Belgians are closing in on Ghent and it was reported in Dutch dispatches that the Allied sweep between Bruges and Ghent had forced 15,000 German troops over the border into Holland.

On the front east and northeast of Cambrai (where the British are approaching the German stronghold at Valenciennes) a new attack was begun by the British Sunday against the new German defensive systems known as the Wotan third and Hindenburg lines. Good progress was made and over 2,000 prisoners taken.

The British have advanced over 11 miles east of Douai, having taken the important rail and highway junction city of Denain and passing on to the eastward.

Southeast of Le Cateau, the Americans have captured Rejet and a hill a mile beyond the Oise.

German troops engaging the Americans northwest of Grand Pre are in danger of being outflanked by the French troops who made a sudden dash northward on Sunday, capturing Tonn-sur-Aube, nearly twelve miles northwest of Grand Pre.

The Americans northwest of Verdun have passed two miles beyond the Kriemhilde line at some points almost reaching and entering the subsidiary Freya line.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and relatives for their kindness shown in our recent bereavement.

URGENT CALL FOR RED CROSS WORKERS

A large government order for surgical dressings in five yards of gauze rolls and tabs in various sizes has just been received by the Ulster County Red Cross Chapter the order to be filled by November 16. In order to fill this the efforts of many women will be needed. It is hoped that all who are able will feel it their duty to come as often as possible to the workshop at the D. A. R. Chapter House or to St. Mary's Hall both of which will be kept open every day in the week. It is earnestly hoped that every woman that can spare some time will come at once. Don't delay as the time is short and the need of the dressings is urgent.
